

RISK WARNING AND EXCLUSION OF LEGAL LIABILITY

Golf can be an enjoyable and exciting activity. However, like many recreational activities that require physical exertion, participating in the game of golf carries with it the risk of physical injury. The risks associated with engaging in the game of golf include the following:

- impacts from sporting equipment such as being hit by a golf ball, golf club or other related equipment;
- damage sustained from operating a golf vehicle;
- golf courses are heavily populated with trees and vegetation which may cause slippages, tripping or falling due to the nature of the terrain;
- the terrain can also contain heightened risks depending on the prevailing weather conditions such as excessive heat, thunderstorms or slippages on wet or slippery surfaces;
- unaccustomed physical exertion;
- rapid or adverse changes in weather;
- being stung or bitten by insects; and/or
- travelling around the golf course including crossing any roads.

As a result you may aggravate an existing injury (especially shoulder injuries) or suffer serious injury, disease or death.

You should ensure that you wear an appropriate clothing (in the hotter months) and apply maximum protection sun-block cream on all exposed skin.

By participating in golfing activities and/or equipment provided by Rich River Golf Club Ltd either at this time or in the future, you agree:

- to comply promptly with all directions given to you by your Instructor, employees or agents of Rich River Golf Club Ltd or by any golf professional on duty;
- that you participate at your own risk;
- that the agreement for services provided to you by Rich River Golf Club Ltd hereby totally excludes any liability that results from breach of any implied or express warranty that the services of Rich River Golf Club Ltd will be rendered with due care and skill and excludes any implied or express warranty and any liability for their breach that any equipment provided by Rich River Golf Club Ltd in connection with the golfing activities or separately will be fit for the purpose for which they are supplied; and
- That Rich River Golf Club Ltd has no liability to you for personal injury, disease or death arising from the services and/or equipment that Rich River Golf Club Ltd provides to you.

The recreational activities referred to in this application/registration/entry form involve inherent risks which may result in serious personal injury or death.

Golf is a recreational activity that involves a significant risk of physical harm. The participation in the sport of golf carries obvious risks that cannot be avoided by the exercise of due care and skill and is also likely to increase the possibility of injury or physical harm to the player and others.

Those obvious risks arise from the nature of the game itself, from hitting a small, hard ball with a golf stick, and from the terrain upon which the game is played. The risks associated with engaging in the game of golf on a golf course include the following:

- impacts from sporting equipment such as being hit by a golf ball, golf club or other related equipment;
- damage sustained from operating a golf vehicle;
- golf courses are heavily populated with trees and vegetation which may cause slippages, tripping or falling due to the nature of the terrain;
- the terrain can also contain heightened risks depending on the prevailing weather conditions such as excessive heat, thunderstorms or slippages on wet or slippery surfaces;
- unaccustomed physical exertion;
- rapid or adverse changes in weather;
- being stung or bitten by insects; and/or
- travelling around the golf course including crossing any roads.
